Discovery of Slowness:

1 of 1 review helpful Historical Mysticism By Sandra Litzenberger I did not think I would enjoy this book once I received it I m not a fan of historical fiction This book was different There many passages that were timeless in their wisdom It was about slow and fast people slow and fast talk about the nature of observation and memory I plan to reread it more slowly this time 0 of 0 review helpful Absolutely stunning Times Literary Supplement The Discovery of Slowness is about a guy who is so incredibly slow in his perception that he actually sees shadows moving T he amazing thing that I remember from reading that book is whenever I looked up from that book I felt I had this view from the book in my real world This book made my life more interesting Christoph Niemann as described in the Netflix series Abs From Publishers Weekly Brutal struggle against Arctic ice enveloping seas off the coast of Australia the death ships of Napoleon s navy is etched here upon a canvas of the contemplative and methodically slow thought of John Franklin whose brain sends no signals
