The Night Watch:

6 of 6 review helpful Making War and Making Love in London in the Forties By Donna Hill I don t normally read war stories and I don t think I ve ever read a story that starts in one year and then keeps going back in time This book starts in 1947 after WWII and ends in 1941 I enjoyed it more than I thought I would because it s similar to a mystery There are allusions to the characters past lives in the first section whi ldquo A wonderful novel hellip Waters is almost Dickensian in her wealth of description and depth of character rdquo mdash Chicago Tribune Moving back through the 1940s through air raids blacked out streets illicit partying and sexual adventure to end with its beginning in 1941 nbsp The Night Watch tells the story of four Londoners mdash three women and a young man with a past mdash whose lives and those of their friends and lovers From Publishers Weekly Starred Waters Fingersmith applies her talent for literary suspense to WWII era London in her latest historical She populates the novel with ordinary people overlooked by history books and sets their individual passions
