3 of 3 review helpful Wonder what serving in Nam was like By Fred Forbes Thank goodness thinks I for a high draft number I had a marriage family exemption then lost it when I divorced Received a student deferment but lost it upon graduation despite the fact that I was married again and had two kids instead of one Fortunately the lottery number I got was high in 1970 and they were winding the Vietnam war down and I The last thing Paul Brenner wanted to do was return to work for the Army s Criminal Investigative Division an organization that thanked him for his many years of dedicated service by forcing him into early retirement But when his former boss calls in a career s worth of favors

Paul finds himself investigating a murder that took place back in Vietnam thirty years before Now returning to a time and place that still haunts him Paul is swept up in the battle of his life In Up Country Nelson DeMille cannily revives the army career of Chief Warrant Officer Paul Brenner the cynical hardworking Criminal Investigation Division man who was forcibly retired after solving the high profile killing in The General s
