doesn't do the book justice. It is much much more than the story of two brothers from Hamburg Germany and their contributions to the SS during WW II. It is a haunting story of the effects of war which delves deeply into human psyches. Both Karl and Gerhard eventually end up working for the SS but the re As the dark specter of the Nazis settles over Germany two wealthy and educated brothers are suddenly thrust into the rising tide of war. Karl a former soldier and successful businessman dutifully answers the call to defend his country while contemplative academic Gerhard is coerced into informing for the Gestapo. Soon the brothers are serving in the SS and as Hitler's hateful agenda brings about unspeakable atrocities they find themselves with innocent blo. About the Author Jesper Bugge Kold was born in Copenhagen Denmark and worked as a journalist before becoming a librarian and website designer. His deep interest in the Second World War inspired him to write Winter Men which was first published in Dani.
