1 of 1 review helpful Make sure to read this one By Raymond H Mullen If you like Civil War Historical Fiction you ll love this one The history is correct the geography is correct and the actual historical characters mentioned in this story are also correct Scarred is a great name considering the theme of this very involved emotion riddled tale Haven t we all made snap decisions in our lives that affected many After fatally shooting the Confederate sharpshooter who killed his bestfriend Zach Harkin s sense of revenge changes to deep remorse when he views the dead man s diary and photo Haunted suffering from posttraumatic stress and unable to serve he is mustered out of service With scant information he begins an epic journey to search for the dead man s family He is captured imprisoned tortured and thoroughly tested as a human being and after escaping he never expect This lean Civil War sequel packs in more history and raw emotion than a 600 page epic Smith writes wonderfully and realistically and one can hear the pacing and menace Smith knows the Civil War in his bones KIRKUS REVIEWS Scarred
