3 of 3 review helpful Very good read By Devin Serlin Angels in Iron is s good book with a decent storyline I love the story about the Great Siege and from a historical point of view my undergraduate thesis was on the siege everything factual is accurate The only thing I would have liked more was a little more character development and closure I feel like I didn t get to know a few of the more important char The year is AD 1523 and the island of Rhodes has just fallen to the Turks Those sailing away in defeat from this captured bastion are members of an anachronistic crusading order called the Knights of St John otherwise known as the Hospitallers Among the dejected company is a stalwart young knight named Jean Parisot De La Valette Were it up to him the order would have defended the island to the bitter end Forty two years later history has repeated itself The H Belongs on the bookshelf of every Catholic man should be read by every Catholic boy 11 or older Latin Mass MagazineCompellingly written and surprisingly difficult to put down A fascinating read for adults and teens The St Linus
